BATTLE HYMN OF MacDONALDS*

TUNE: "Battle Hymn of the Republic"

In Bonnie Scotland our MacDonald fathers lived and died;
Where heather grows and breezes blow and on the banks of Clyde.
At our name what Scottish heart but beats with joy and pride!
The clan goes marching on!

CHORUS: Glory to the sons of Donald,
Clanranald, The Isles and Argyle!
Glory to our mighty family!
The clan goes marching on!

Augus Og and Somerled were fathers of our clan;
Posterity of Reginald and Bryan never ran.
John and James were virile, Alex' was a sturdy man.
The clan goes marching on!

There's something strong and mighty in a good old family name;
The name of MacDonald shineth high upon the scroll of fame;
For nearly all MacDonalds have pursued a lofty aim.
The clan goes marching on!

MacDonald blood is mingled with the royal bloods of old.
Each century our numbers have increased a hundred fold.
Among the world's great families our family is pure gold.
The clan goes marching on!

Our ancient family cherishes traditions of the past,
With the world's great movements they have all their fortunes cast,
And when they pledge their honor they are loyal to the last.
The clan goes marching on!

MacDonalds fought at Renfrew, Bannockburn and Waterloo;
In every righteous cause our kinsmen fought as heroes do;
They died in seventeen seventy-six, and nineteen eighteen, too.
The clan goes marching on!

We have our dukes and peasants, common folk and blue bloods, too;
We greet each other with a smile and "Cousin, howdy-do!"
This goes with all MacDonalds and it goes with me and you.
The clan goes marching on!

We must prove worthy of our place on old MacDonald Tree
Let our standards with the highest in the world agree.
We owe a duty to the generations yet to be.
The clan goes marching on!

* "MacDonald" is intended to be synonymous with "McDonald."

THE M(a)cDonald Family is among the forty-nine "best families" selected by the American Historical-Genealogical Society for whom the Society has published family histories during the past few years. The M(a)cDonald family has been prominent in the British Empire and in the United States; its members having played important rôles in war and in peace. Family pride is a commendable trait and should be cultivated. All M(a)cDonalds have just cause to be proud of their family history and traditions.

In reference No. 14 we find the following regarding the origin and meaning of the name MacDonald:

The surname, MacDonald, means the son or descendant of Donald. Donald is a well-known northern personal name. By some etymologists it is thought to be derived from the Gaelic "donhuil," which means "brown-eyed." Others say that it comes from two Gaelic words, "domhan"—the world—and "all"—mighty. In Scotch histories of the family the name is always written Macdonald or MacDonald, while those of the clan who have come to America usually use the abbreviation, McDonald.

The clan MacDonald is certainly one of the oldest and most important in Scotland. Its chiefs descended from Somerled, Thane of Argyle, but sometimes styled King of the Isles, who flourished in the twelfth century. [See Chapter (C)].

This clan has been known for centuries for its fearlessness and bravery, and also for its ancient and unbroken lineage. It is well represented today throughout Great Britain and the United States.

The data in this volume is gathered from reliable sources. We have selected what we consider the most important material. Many of the daughters, and sons for whom no issue was shown, have been omitted from the pedigrees. A missing symbol indicates that a name has been omitted. Those desiring further information are advised to consult the volumes mentioned in the list of References.

The compiler hopes that, in producing this volume he is bringing to the M(a)cDonald Family information which will be of interest and value to them, and that he is rendering an important service to the public. He and his associates will be glad to give their cooperation to members of the family who are interested in having a complete genealogy of the family published.

Unless otherwise plainly shown, the persons in this volume whose names are accompanied by three figures are children of the immediately preceding persons bearing immediately preceding numbers. All persons in each group bearing the same letter as a part of their numbers, are directly related. The generations of the descendants of those bearing numbers of three figures are represented as follows. However, some of our material is published as copied from various records without rearrangement according to this system.

(B) THE MACDONALD-McDONALD COAT OF ARMS

COAT of Arms is an emblem or a device which is displayed by titled persons, persons of royal blood, and their descendants. Coats of Arms were originally used for purposes of identification and recognition on the field of battle as well as in civil life.

It is claimed by some writers that Coats of Arms, in a crude form, were used by Noah's sons after the flood. There are records of other Coats of Arms, in one crude form or another, at different periods of ancient history. Heraldry, however, as we know it today, did not become of much importance until soon after the invasion of England by William the Conqueror, A. D. 1066. Heraldry became of general interest at about the time of the Crusades.

The MacDonald (McDonald) Coat of Arms shown in the front of this volume is the Arms of the Macdonalds of St. Martin's Abbey and of Slate, Isle of Skye (created 1625). Coats of Arms very similar to it are used by the MacDonalds of Clanranald; the MacDonalds of Sleat; the Bosville-Macdonalds of the Isle, and many others. Numerous other branches of the MacDonald family have Coats of Arms resembling it.

This is the most widely used of all MacDonald Coats of Arms and has been in existence for many centuries. It is described in BURKE'S GENERAL ARMORY, BURKE'S PEERAGE AND BARONETAGE, BURKE'S LANDED GENTRY and other reliable works on heraldry, in some cases accompanied by illustrations and pedigrees. It has been used for generations by many American branches of the MacDonald-McDonald family.

	HERALDIC LANGUAGE	ENGLISH DESCRIPTION
Arms .....	Quarterly, first argent, a lion rampant gules; second, or, a dexter arm in fesse couped below the elbow, armored gules, hand proper, holding a cross-crosslett-fitchee of the second; third or a lymphad sable; fourth, vert, a fish fesseways argent.	A shield divided into quarters: the first silver, bearing a red lion rampant; the second, gold, bearing an arm in red armor, the hand (natural color) holding erect a red cross; the third, a black ship upon a golden field; the fourth, a silver fish upon a green field.
Crest .....	Issuant from the wreath a forearm holding a cross-crosslett-fitchee, erect, gules.	A forearm holding a cross like that in the Arms, both red and both erect.
Motto .....	Per mare per terras. (Latin).	By land and by sea.

Sir Bernard Burke, of Heralds College, London, said "Heraldry is prized by all who can show honorable ancestry or wish to found honorable families."

Besides its family significance this Coat of Arms makes an excellent mural decoration and inspires the admiration and comment of all who see it.

It is quite appropriate that members of the MacDonald-McDonald family who have a pride in their ancestry should display the family Coat of Arms, in proper colors.

(C) ANCIENT MACDONALD FAMILIES

THE following titled MacDonald families are listed in BURKE'S GENERAL ARMORY: Slate, Isle of Skye, Bart., 1625; Bosville-Macdonald; East Sheer, Co. Surrey, bart.; Moydart, Scotland, Captain of Clanranald; Largie; Sir John Macdonald, K. C. B., 1818; General Sir John Macdonald, G. C. B., 1849; St. Martin's Co. Perth, 1849; Foote-MacDonald; Craig-na-Gower; Co. Argyll, 1875.

MacDonald

- A101 SOMERLED: married Ragnhilbis, daughter of Olave, King of Man. He was Baron of Argyle from 1140 to 1164; slain at Battle Renfrew. Also known as Rex Insularum (King of Isles). (From him are descended not only the Macdonalds, who were allied by intermarriages with the Norwegian Earls of the Orkneys, Hebrides and Isle of Man, but also the MacDonells, one of the most powerful of Irish families.)
- A102 REGINAL, SON OF SOMERLED: married Fonia, granddaughter of Fergus, Prince of Galloway; d. 1207. He was lord of Isles and succeeded by his son, Donald, from whom descended the "Clan Donald" (Macdonalds).
- A103 DONALD: Lord of Isles, married daughter of Walter Stewart and d. prior to 1249. From this on the descendants were called Macdonald.
- A104 AUGUS MOR: Lord of Isles; married daughter of Sir Colin Campbell of Lochow.
- A105 AUGUS OG: Lord of Isles and hero of Battle of Bannockburn; m. Agnes (dau. of Guy O'Cohen, a branch of the O'Neils).
- A106 JOHN: Lord of Isles and Earl of Ross; m. Princess Margaret (dau. of ROBERT II, (STUART) KING OF SCOTLAND and his wife, Lady Elizabeth Mure).
- A107 JOHN MOR: Lord of Dunnyveg and Earl of Antrim; m. Margery Bissett (heiress of Seven Glens of Antrim); was assassinated in 1427 by James Campbell.
- A108 MARCUS: m. Amy (dau. of Olahan, Lord of Derry); slain in battle when young.
- A109 CHARLES (OR TURLOUGH): was Capt. of Galloglasses (the heavily armed troops); migrated to Queens Co., Ireland, and became constable of the Pale and Lovel, of Tynekill; d. 1435.
- A110 JOHN CARROGH: Lord of Tynekill, described as "The best Captain of the English"; slain in 1466.
- A111 CHARLES OG (OR TURLOUGH OG): Lord of Tynekill; slain in battle 1503.
- A112 JOHN: Lord of Tynekill; killed in 1514.
- A113 CHARLES, OR TURLOUGH.
- A114 CALVAGN, OR CALLA, also called MACTURLOUGH: had a grant of Tynekill from Queen Elizabeth in 1562; was slain June 18th, 1570.
- A115 HUGH BUY: Lord of Tynekill and Ballycastle; m. Mary Moore; d. in 1618.

- A116 BRYAN: younger son.
- A117 ALEXANDER: a distinguished Commander of Galloglasses; m. a dau. of Thos. Archibald of Wicklow.
- A118 BRYAN: emigrated to America; m. Mary Combs; served as Lieutenant in Col. Francis Toole's regt. under King James II, Monarch from 1685 to 1688. On Nov. 18, 1689, he bought 693 acres from William Penn near New Castle, Del., and d. there. For his descendants in America see Chapters (F) and (G).

Macdonald of Clanranald

The Macdonalds of Clanranald trace their descent from the great family of the Lords of the Isles, and when the vassal clans became separate communities, each under its own chief, the Clan Donald proper gradually divided into three factions—supporting the claims to precedence of the branches Clanranald, Glengarry, and Sleat, respectively—thus effectually destroying its power as an organization. It has long been recognized that the question of precedence can never be decided, and thus with a view to creating a better feeling, a compromise to enable them to act together for the common interest was arranged by the Chiefs of the three factions in 1911.

- B119 REGINALD (OR RANALD) DE ILE (family name Macdonald): became first chief of the branch of Clanranald; d. 1386; five sons, including,
 (1) Allan: 2nd of Clanranald—B120.
 (2) Donald: 1st chief of the branch of Glengarry.
- B120 ALLAN: d. 1419; s. by eldest son of first wife, dau. of Stewart of Appin.
- B121 RORY: d. 1481; m. dau. Donald Macdonald, of Dunnyveg.
 (1) Allan: his heir—B122.
 (2) Hector: progenitor of the MacEachens (or sons of Hector).
- B122 ALLAN: d. 1505; a distinguished warrior; kept at bay all other forces brought to bear against the Clan during troubled times following fall of the Lordship of the Isles; prevented the subjugation of the W. Highlands; recognized by the Crown as the next heir, on the death, in 1502, of John, 2nd chief of Sleat, only acknowledged heir of Hugh, half-brother of John, 10th and last Lord of the Isles; m. three times, having eight sons and one dau.; by 1st wife, Florence (dau. Donald Macian) were,
 (1) Ranald Bane: his heir—B123.
 (2) Alexander: subsequently became 7th chief—B125
 (3) Ranald Gallda: son of Allan by Isabella (dau. of Lord Fraser); slain at Blairlene—B127.
- B123 RANALD BANE: led clan four years; went to meet King at Perth and d. there, 1509; m. Catherine (dau. Lachlan MacIntosh); s. by his eldest son,
- B124 DUGALL: apparently a madman, showed himself incapable to last degree; lost lands in Skye; general conduct of affairs exasperated clansmen, who saw themselves on point of ruin; assassinated 1520, and uncle

Alex. elected chief (not necessary, for documents prove him next legitimate heir); sons by irregular unions.

(1) Allan: progenitor of the branch of Morar.

(2) Lachlan. (3) Alexander.

(4) Ranald: 1st of the Bornish branch.

B125 ALEXANDER [B122—(2)]: eight sons by "handfast" unions (rite recognized in Highlands but not in Lowlands); d. about 1530; s. by eldest son, B126 JOHN MUIDERTEACH: (or of Moidart); greatest chief Clanranald ever had; succeeded when all was chaos, not only in the Clanranald through the incapacity of Dugall, but in the Isles severally, through the fall of the lordship; fought hard to establish his position and still harder to maintain it, especially as he was a staunch supporter of Queen Mary; was a born leader of men; took out charters from the crown to establish right to lands (first having to obtain a precept of legitimation, since he was the offspring of a handfast union). The Latin word "Capitanus," used to translate "Chief," was the cause of fierce controversy and was supposed to have proved John an illegitimate interloper. He was kidnapped by the Crown, 1540, and imprisoned at Edinburgh. Lord Lovat, Chief of the Clan Fraser, invaded Moidart and installed Ranald Gallda. John escaped and, powerfully supported, drove out Ranald Gallda, slaying him and most of his party at the battle at Blairlene. John m. three times and had 8 sons; d. 1574.

(1) Allan: his heir (by Margaret, dau. of Macian of Ardmurchad)—B128.

(2) John: 1st of the branch of Glenaladale (by dau. of Macdonald of Knoydart)—See F187.

B127 RANALD GALLDA: slain by John Muiderteach, after which the latter was again Chief.

B128 ALLAN: d. 1593; by dau. of Macleod of Harris, had,

(1) Allan Og: murdered by brothers.

by Janet (dau. of Maclean of Duart), had,

(2) John: of Strome; accidentally killed at Strome where he was being fostered by Glengarry.

(3) Angus: the heir—B129.

(4) Donald: s. Angus—B130.

(5) Ranald: 1st of the branch of Benbecula.

(A) Angus Og: progenitor of the branches,—1st, of Milton (to which Flora Macdonald of 1745 fame belonged); 2nd, of Dàlilia.

(B) A Son: 2nd of Benbecula.

(a) Donald: 3rd of Benbecula; 14th Chief of Clanranald—B135.

(b) James: (a grandson of Ranald though perhaps not a bro. of Donald); 1st of the branch of Belfinlay.

(6) John: 1st of the branch of Kinlochmoidart.

(7) Rory.

(8) Margaret: m. Donald MacDonnell, 7th of Glengarry.

- (9) Marion: m. Roderick MacNeill, of Barra.
- (10) Letitia: m. Alex., 2nd of Glenaladale.
- B129 ANGUS [B128—(3)]: captured by the Macleods and killed; s. by brother.
- B130 DONALD [B128—(4)]: knighted by James VI, to whom he made submission; m. Mary (dau. Alex. MacDonald, of Dunnyveg); d. 1617; s. by eldest of four sons.
- B131 JOHN: (known as second John of Moidart); strong supporter of Charles I; fought with distinction under Montrose; m. Marion (dau. Sir Roderick Macleod); d. 1670.
- (1) Donald: the heir—B132.
- (2) Marion: m. Lachlan Maclean, 8th of Coll.
- (3) Catherine: m. McNeill, of Barra.
- (4) Anne: m. Ranald Oge Macdonald, 2nd of Benbecula.
- B132 DONALD: served with father under Montrose; later with Earl of Antrim in Ireland; m. (1) 1655, Janet (dau. Sir Donald Macdonald of Sleat); m. (2), Marion (dau. of John, 14th of Macleod); three sons and three daus.; d. 1686; s. by eldest son.
- B133 ALLAN: joined Dundee with his tutor, Donald Macdonald; [B128—(5)—(B)—(b) above, and B135 below], 3rd of Benbecula, and greatly contributed to victory at Killiecrankie; refused to take oath to new Government when all hope of success for the Cause vanished; retired to France with brother Ranald and completed education; obtained commission under Duke of Berwick and served in his campaign in Spain; severely wounded at the battle of Almanza; collected his vassals and joined Mar when he raised his standard for the Stewarts; took prominent part in all subsequent operations; led right wing of Mar's army at Sheriffmuir where he fell, 1715; burnt Castle Turrin before leaving for South so it couldn't fall into hands of the enemy; his house at Ormiclate, S. Uist, accidentally burned day he fell at Sheriffmuir; m. Penelope (dau. Alex Mackenzie, Gov. of Tangiers under Charles II); s. by brother.
- B134 RANALD: did not leave France with Allan; Clan in disgrace after Rising of 1715, so unable to do so; d. unm. at St. Germain, 1725; s. by cousin,
- B135 DONALD [B128—(5)—(B)—(b)]: 3rd of Benbecula, where he d., 1730; m. (1) Margaret (dau. Donald, 13th of Clanranald).
- (1) Ranald: b. 1692; his heir—B136.

(I) PROMINENT MACDONALDS AND McDONALDS OF AMERICA, PAST GENERATIONS

MacDonalds

ANDREW ARCHIBALD MACDONALD: Canadian statesman; b. 1829, at Three Rivers, P. E. I., to which his grandfather, Andrew, with his retainers, emigrated from Scotland in 1806. He was Consular Agent for the United States at Three Rivers, 1849-70; represented Georgetown the House of the Assembly, 1854-70; and was appointed Lieutenant-Governor of P. E. I., 1884.

DONALD: loyalist; b. Scotland, 1712. He raised a body of loyal Scots and Regulators in January, 1776, was commissioned their General by Gov. Josiah Martin, and marched upon Wilmington. The militia was called out in haste and he was among the prisoners captured. He was confined in Halifax jail and afterward in Philadelphia, until he was finally exchanged.

HUGH: Canadian jurist; b. Antigonish, Nova Scotia, 1827; admitted to bar in Nova Scotia, 1855, and became Queen's Counsel, 1872. He was elected a mem. of the Provincial Parliament for Inverness, 1859-62; later declined the Solicitor-Generalship, and, after serving in several high offices, in 1873, was appointed Judge of the Superior Court of Nova Scotia for life.

JAMES MADISON: clergyman, b. in Limerick, Me., 1812. He was graduated from Union College, 1832, and from Yale Theological Seminary, 1835, and ordained pastor of 3rd Congregational Church of Berlin, Conn., the same year; delivered a course of lectures on homiletics at Boston University in 1874.

MOSES: congressman; b. Limerick, Me., 1814; bro. of James Madison. He served in the Legislature and in Congress, and was collector of customs at Portland, 1857-61.

JAMES WILSON ALEXANDER: sculptor; b. Steubenville, O., 1824. He moved to New York in 1865, and executed colossal statues for several states. Besides these, his work included busts of various men, including Peter Cooper and John Van Buren. He painted portraits and landscapes in oil, lectured on art and science, and wrote analytical criticisms on American artists.

JOHN: Canadian M.P.; b. Saratoga, N. Y., 1787; s. of John, who came to Saratoga from Perthshire, Scotland, a few days before the birth of his son. In 1840 he was a member of the Legislative Council of Upper and Lower Canada; was for some time a Colonel of Leeds Militia, held local offices in Gananoque, and, with his bro. Charles, paid for the first church erected there.

HERBERT STONE: Canadian jurist; b. Gananoque, 1842; s. John, Canadian M.P.; grad. Queen's University, 1859. In 1878 he was appointed Senior Judge and later became revising-officer for several electoral districts. He had charge of the Orange incorporation bills in 1873, and that year went on lecturing tour in Ireland.

JOHN: Canadian merchant; b. Perth, Scotland; from 1824 to 1849 engaged in business in Toronto, Can., and became one of wealthiest merchants in the country. He was a member of the general conference of the M. E. Church, was actively connected in the Evangelical Alliance, the Bible Society, and the Y. M. C. A. In Nov., 1887, he became a mem. of the Dominion Senate, and later gave $40,000 to found a Toronto hospital. He was author of the pamphlet "Business Success".

SIR JOHN ALEXANDER: Canadian statesman; b. Glasgow, Scotland, 1815; s. of Hugh, who emigrated from Sutherlandshire and settled in Kingston, Can., in 1820. In 1846 he was appointed Queen's Counsel and afterward became a bencher, ex-officio, of the Law Society of Ontario. He was elected M. P. for Lennox, Carleton and Kingston Counties, became Receiver-General, and, later, Commissioner of Crown Lands; was the recipient of many honorary scholastic degrees.

JOHN SANDFIELD: Canadian statesman; b. St. Raphaels, Glengarry, 1812. His grandfather had come there from Scotland, in 1786, with one of those Highland migrations by which the County of Glengarry was almost exclusively colonized. At Cornwall Grammar School, he was declared "dux" of the school at the end of two years, although the usual course was three. In 1862 he was called upon by Lord Monk to form a government after the defeat of the Cartier-Macdonald administration. This he did, and remained Premier until he resigned in 1864. In 1867 he became Premier of the Province of Ontario.

DONALD ALEXANDER (brother of John Sandfield): statesman; b. St. Raphaels, Glengarry, Ont., 1817. He was elected Postmaster-General of Glengarry for several terms, but resigned to accept the office of Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, 1875-80. He was President of the Montreal and Ottawa Junction Railroad, and Lieutenant-Colonel in command of the Glengarry reserve militia.

McDonalds

ALEXANDER McDONALD: senator; b. Clinton Co., Pa., 1832. He settled in Arkansas as a merchant in 1863, established and became president of a National bank at Fort Smith, and was also president of the Merchants' National Bank of Little Rock. On the readmission of Arkansas into the Union, he was elected a U. S. Senator, serving from 1868 to 1871.

CHARLES JAMES: jurist; b. Charleston, S. C., 1793; brought up in Hancock Co., Ga.; was a Judge of the Supreme Court of Georgia from 1857 until his death in 1860. He was a man of great influence and probity.

DANIEL: Canadian clergyman; b. St. Andrew's, P.E.I., 1822; studied seven years in Rome and received the degree of D.D.; was ordained in Rome in 1851, and in 1857 returned to P.E.I. He was appointed Vicar-General and senior priest of St. Dunstan's Cathedral and later became professor at St. Dunstan's College. His ability as a speaker brought him wide fame.

DONALD: Canadian senator; b. Caledonia, N. Y., 1816; s. of Alexander, a native of Inverness-shire, Scotland, who settled in New York State early in the 19th century, and moved to Canada with his family in 1823. He served in the Legislative Council of Canada in 1858 and later in the Senate; was interested in the formation of "the separate school system", and was a trustee of Queen's University.

JAMES: physician; b. White Plains, N. Y., 1803. In 1831 he was sent by the governors of New York Hospital to visit insane asylums of Europe, with understanding that on his return he should have entire charge of Bloomingdale asylum for five years. He gave a course of lectures on mental diseases at the New York College of Physicians and Surgeons, 1842, that were probably the first of that character ever delivered in the United States. He was the author of several books, including "Reports on the Condition of Blackwell Island Asylum".

JAMES: Canadian jurist; b. East River, Pictou, N. S., 1828, his ancestors having come from Scotland and settled in Pictou in the 18th century. He was educated at New Glasgow; admitted to U. S. bar, 1857, and appointed Queen's Counsel, 1867; served in Nova Scotia Legislature, was its chief railway commissioner, Financial Secretary, Minister of Justice, and Chief Justice.

JOSEPH EWING: senator; b. Butler Co., O., 1819. He served in the United States Congress and Senate, took a conspicuous part in debates on finance, and was in favor of hard money and a protective tariff.

RONALD: Canadian Roman Catholic bishop; b. Antigonish Co., N. S., 1835. He began his classical studies in Cape George and finished his theological course in St. Francis Xavier's College, where he was ordained priest in 1859. During his ministry he erected five churches, a lay convent, and extension schools at Pictou, and was consecrated Bishop of Harbor Grau in the church of Pictou in 1881. He also established schools among Micmac Indians.

(K) MACDONALD TOWNS, ETC.

There are in the United States towns as follows:

MACDONALD: W. Va.; MACDONALDTON: Pa.; McDONALD: Kans., Mich., Miss., N. Mex., N. Y., Ohio, Pa., Tenn.; McDONALDS: N. C. There are also in the United States numerous counties, townships, streets, avenues, etc., bearing the name "MacDonald" and "McDonald". This is eloquent testimony to the high esteem in which the name is held in this country.

(L) M(A)CDONALD CENSUS OF THE UNITED STATES

The compiler of these records has made up a list from city and telephone directories of the United States, and from other sources, as follows. Care was taken to eliminate, wherever possible, persons known or believed to be colored, or of nationalities other than British and American:

Alabama.....	163	Maine.....	264	Oklahoma.....	143
Arizona.....	47	Maryland.....	71	Oregon.....	39
Arkansas.....	44	Massachusetts.....	1820	Pennsylvania.....	819
California.....	1311	Michigan.....	819	Rhode Island.....	227
Colorado.....	215	Minnesota.....	315	South Carolina.....	10
Connecticut.....	280	Mississippi.....	55	South Dakota.....	14
District of Columbia...	117	Missouri.....	248	Tennessee.....	174
Delaware.....	26	Montana.....	147	Texas.....	459
Florida.....	213	Nebraska.....	121	Utah.....	90
Georgia.....	54	Nevada.....	14	Vermont.....	59
Idaho.....	24	New Hampshire.....	104	Virginia.....	66
Illinois.....	677	New Jersey.....	475	Washington.....	232
Indiana.....	339	New Mexico.....	8	West Virginia.....	67
Iowa.....	152	New York.....	1642	Wisconsin.....	179
Kansas.....	70	North Carolina.....	42	Wyoming.....	17
Kentucky.....	124	North Dakota.....	21
Louisiana.....	52	Ohio.....	689	Total.....	13,358

To secure an estimate of the "M(a)cDonald population" of the United States, we figure as follows:

(a)
Multiply
by

Only about half the names were taken from each directory consulted..... 2

Half of the M(a)cDonalds reside in the rural districts or in small towns having no printed directories which were available to us.....	2

There is an average of more than four persons in each American family.....	4
Since M(a)cDonald daughters marry and have as many descendants as the M(a)cDonald sons, there are as many descendants of "other names" as there are bearing the name M(a)cDonald (though it is much easier to locate the latter).....	2
By multiplying each figure of column (a) into the preceding figure, we have a total of.....	32
Conservative estimate of the M(a)cDonald population of the United States, one-half of whom bear the name M(a)cDonald and one-half of whom bear other names.....	427,456
The estimated M(a)cDonald population of any of the states may be obtained by multiplying the figures shown by 32. There are M(a)cDonalds in every state of the Union. The M(a)cDonald population of the British Empire is probably equal to that of the United States.

(M) RELIGIONS OF THE M(A)CDONALDS

For several centuries the M(a)cDonalds lived in Scotland. Most of the Scotch and, likewise, the M(a)cDonalds were and are of the Presbyterian faith.

There are a few M(a)cDonalds of the Catholic faith in the British Isles, but it is estimated that their number does not exceed ten per cent of the entire M(a)cDonald population.

The M(a)cDonalds who came from the British Isles to America continued in the faith of their fathers, for the most part, though their descendants in this country today will be found in the memberships of practically all the various churches. It is estimated that of all the M(a)cDonalds in America who are church members, at least eighty-five per cent are of the Protestant faith.

Biographical sketches of eighteen MacDonalds and nineteen McDonalds appear in WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA. Their religious faiths are shown as follows: BAPTIST, 2; CONGREGATIONALIST, 1; EPISCOPAL, 2; PRESBYTERIAN, 5; ROMAN CATHOLIC, 1; OTHER PROTESTANTS, 2; RELIGION NOT STATED, 24.
